"BIG DECISIONS" HUNTED IN EGYPT

Nazi Pressure On Japanese Is Suspected

Reinforcement Of U. S.
Air Force In Pacific
Seen As A Reply

Washington, Feb. 21.—(AP)—The belief today that the administration regards the true far eastern situation as something made in Germany.

The administration, in the opinion of these legislators, has reason to think that Berlin has been exerting pressure to get Japan into the present war and then embroiled with the United States in the Far East in order to hamper the British aid program.

This interpretation of the recent abrupt turn of events in the orient was one reason, it was reported, why the decision was taken to dispatch immediately a number of the latest army and navy planes to reinforce American air strength at Pacific bases.

When General George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, testified yesterday at a secret session of the senate military affairs committee, the committee member said he left the impression that these were legitimate conclusions.

Marshall was said to have told the committee that he considered the situation in the Far East serious.

F. D. R. Displeased
President Roosevelt said today he considered the disclosure of what was intended to be secret testimony by Marshall as hurtful to national defense.

The President told a press conference that it raised a question of ethics, morals, and patriotism on the part of committee members and editors, publishers and broadcasters who printed reports of Marshall's testimony.

The chief executive said it was a question for the American people to consider. At the conclusion of his questioning on the subject he said it was purely a voluntary matter, that he was not thinking about censorship, but that he was merely putting it up to the people as a nice question to think about.

When Japan signed the three-power axis pact last September, officials here construed the alliance primarily as an attempt by Germany and Italy to create the threat of war in the Pacific and thereby impede the flow of American aid to Britain while at the same time allowing Japan freedom for expansion in Asia.

Two weeks ago, in an apparent answer to reported axis efforts to bring Japan in war with the United States, President Roosevelt told

Sues Nazi Consul

Asking $5,000 for "salary and expenses," Mrs. Alice Crockett, above, former motion picture actress, is suing Capt. Fritz Wiedemann, German consul general in San Francisco, charging he did not pay her for a trip in 1939 to Germany in his behalf. Mrs. Crockett said she went to Germany to ascertain how Wiedemann "stood" with the Nazi party chiefs. Wiedemann has labeled her charges "fantastic." Mrs. Crockett is the former wife of Lieut. Col. Gilman K. Crockett of the United States army.

Powerful Bomber Reinforcements Cross Pacific

Aircraft Being Flown To British Forces In Far
East From U. S.

Washington, Feb. 21.—(AP)—The British embassy announced today that "aircraft are being flown" to its forces in the far east from the west coast of the United States.

Although indicating that powerful bomber reinforcements were being sent to the British at Singapore, the embassy declined to give any further details.

"We can say nothing about the numbers, types, or routes of these aircraft," an official said.

The embassy statement followed reports that Consolidated and Lockheed bombers were being flown from San Diego to Singapore via Hawaii.

Some officials indicated the flight of Consolidated bombers was likely because they are large, long-range ships, but Lockheed spokesmen doubted whether their ships had enough range for the long over-water hops.

The British disclosed long ago they were buying four-motored Consolidated ships for long-range bombing duty.

For months they have been flying American-made warplanes across the Atlantic to England.

Sees Considerable Danger
Tokyo, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka told Japanese newspapermen today that continuing defense preparations by Britain and the United States in the south Pacific would produce a situation "attended by considerable danger."

Domel, Japanese news agency, quoted the foreign minister as expressing hope in a lengthy interview that "the Anglo-Saxons" would refrain from "taking any measures tending to excite Japanese public opinion."

Appeal Judgment For $65 Oil Bill

A suit on an account by the Sunoco Refining company against the Kankakee Sand company and Fred C. Hamilton, former president of the latter company, was being heard this morning by Circuit Judge Luther R. Bratton.

The case is an appeal from the court of Justice R. Smith, who on Dec. 19, 1938 gave the plaintiff company a judgment of $65.81 against Dr. Hamilton who makes the appeal, represented by Attorney John H. Beckers.

The refining company, represented by Attorney T. R. Johnston, claims that Dr. Hamilton assumed liability for the sand company's account for gasoline and oil.

Five Hostesses Are Named For Chanute Field And Camp Grant

Chicago, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Selection of five hostesses to serve at Chanute Field, Rantoul, Ill., and two at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., was announced today by Brigadier General Charles H. Bonesteel, commander of the army's sixth corps area.

Six other hostesses named earlier are on duty at Fort Sheridan, Ill., and Fort Custer, Mich.

The Camp Grant hostess staff will be headed by Mrs. Margaret Graham Lindsey, 49, of 872 Pine street, Winnetka, Ill., who had similar experience during the world war.

The chief hostess at Chanute field is Mrs. Bertha Haven Francis, 48, of 715 W. Michigan avenue, Urbana, Ill., a sorority chaperon on the University of Illinois campus.

Assisting Mrs. Lindsey at Camp Grant will be Miss Margaret J. Hanchett, 29, of 327 North Church street, Rockford, Ill.

The junior hostesses at Chanute field will be Miss Audrey Callender, 32, of 1213 West State street, Jacksonville, Ill., and Miss Wren Barbe, 28, of 412 First avenue, Sterling, Ill.

Mrs. Lindsey, who has had wide experience in social service work, was a canteen worker with the American expeditionary force in France during 1918 and 1919.

After the armistice she was in charge of Y. M. C. A. hut No. 7 at Gennevilliers, France. She is a native of Joliet.

The widow of an army officer, Mrs. Francis was born in New Lenox, Ill., attended high school in Joliet and the Loring school in Chicago. For the past six years she has directed activities at the Alpha Xi Delta house at the University of Illinois.

Miss Hanchett, born in Rock Falls, Ill., is employed as a receptionist in the office of the construction quartermaster at Camp Grant. She was graduated from Western

Mind As Well As Body Must Be Conditioned

Assistant Football
Coach At Illinois U.
Addresses Rotary

The importance of mental conditioning, athletics and in the game of life was discussed by Ray Elliott, assistant football coach at the University of Illinois in a talk at the Rotary club meeting Thursday noon in the Hotel Kankakee.

More contests are won because of good thinking and lost because of bad thinking than any other factor, physical stamina and ability to the contrary notwithstanding—according to Elliott.

Whatever a man sets out to do, he must possess the determination, the driving desire to achieve regardless of obstacles if he is to attain his goal. When a fellow can say from his heart "Boy, I can do it," he is halfway there already, the mentor pointed out.

Coach's Hardest Job
Any coach admires a player of fine physique who can run fast and hard, but if the player lacks the courage and the will to achieve all his stamina and hulk doesn't count for much.

"The hardest job of a coach is to condition minds of the players," said Elliott who cited many instances in various sports contests to illustrate his point.

The success of Tom Harmon of Michigan was one example mentioned to show the importance of brilliant thinking on the gridiron.

Motion pictures of the games show the terrific amount of thinking involved in successful gridiron ruses.

The mental supremacy attained by Grover Cleveland Alexander in the seventh and deciding game of the world series between the Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals in 1926 was a classic example related with the bases loaded and Tony Lazzeri then the greatest clutch hitter in baseball at bat for the Yankees.

Alexander was called from the Cardinal bullpen to the pitching mound to pitch the game.

"There were just two words in Alexander's mind," he admitted afterwards, "according to Elliott. Alexander's only thought was 'Poor Tony.' He might have been thinking of the bonus that depended upon his arm, the honor and prestige, the 47,000 people watching him or he could have gripped because he was thrown into such a difficult spot. Instead he was so confident of victory that he actually pitted the batsman.

In fairness to the boys who are doing their best, the speaker concluded Monday morning quarterbacking and urged all spectators to cheer.

Urges Abstract Of Title Whenever Land Is Purchased

Before buying land, Kankakee county families should investigate the true value on the basis of the earning power of the land and also examine the title to the property, advises Miss Gladys Ward, home management specialist, University of Illinois college of agriculture.

Speaking to 30 local leaders of the county Home Bureau, Miss Ward pointed out that usually all the essential facts bearing on the title to the land are recorded in an abstract.

Such an abstract, she said, is not a guarantee of good title but is a record of what has legally affected the property. Thus, if there are any defects to the title, the purchaser has an opportunity to have the defects removed before carrying out the transaction.

The following local leaders heard Miss Ward's talk:

Mrs. Perry Christopher and Mrs. John Winterroth, Cary; Mrs. Ernest Salzman, Champaign; Mrs. George Yokanka and Mrs. Roy Hildebrand, Court unit of Kankakee; Mrs. Thomas Jensen and Mrs. Vernon Bussert, Essex-Kankakee; Mrs. Edmund R. Selk and Mrs. Fred Grant, Grant Park; Mrs. James Jensen and Mrs. L. G. Wisner, Herscher; Mrs. R. B. McKinstry and Mrs. J. L. Strasma, Kankakee; Mrs. Elton Holmes, Limestone; Mrs. A. R. McCormick, Manteno.

Mrs. John Ward and Mrs. Paul Beaupre, Momence; Mrs. C. Rader, Pembroke; Mrs. Frances Smith and Mrs. Percy Reed, Reddick; Mrs. Fred Nussbaum and Mrs. Harvey Marr, Rockville; Mrs. F. J. Rice and Mrs. Henry Davis, Salina; Mrs. Walter Ranz, South Kankakee; Mrs. O. W. Heenerberg, Summer; Mrs. August Krieger and Mrs. Maude P. Maybe They Got The Idea From F. D. R.

The "wearing" of the green occurs on March 17 but for parishoners and friends of St. Patrick church, the annual parish party will be advanced to Saturday, March 15 in the K. of C. hall. It was announced today by the Rev. J. E. Fitzpatrick, pastor.

Without doubt, plenty of green will be predominant in the decorative scheme, in the shamrocks, frills, balloons, ties and women's wearing apparel. Committees are making arrangements to accommodate another large crowd at this affair and provide a pleasant evening in the "green oasis." Card games will be played from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. with "pivot" at the table. The order of the evening prize will be awarded each four-week.

A nine piece band and a floor show will entertain dancers and other celebrants following the card games. Many door prizes will be given.

The party was originally scheduled for the armory but was changed to the K. C. hall when it was found that the Illinois National Guard units will be bivouacked in the armory at that time preparatory to leaving for camp.

Shure and all the Murphys, O'Briens, McMarottes and O'Boudreaux will be there for the "wearing" of the green.

Ex-Beaverville Man Held For Theft

Wabeka, Feb. 21.—(RN Special)—Harvey Rock, 35, Chicago Heights, former resident of Beaverville, was arrested Thursday afternoon by Sheriff Guy E. Redman on a warrant signed by Ralph Kuester of Beaverville.

Rock is accused of theft of $4 in furs from the Kuester home. A hearing was to be held today before Justice Frank Bush.

Charles Conn, former Brook, Ind. advertising directory salesman wanted here for embezzlement a year ago was arrested yesterday when he returned to Brook to attend the funeral of his mother. Conn was removed to the county jail at Kentland and Sheriff Guy E. Redman will start extradition proceedings.

The prisoner's brother, Harry Conn, is now serving a one-year sentence in Vandalia state penal farm for conviction on similar charges.

J. L. Strasma Wins Accident Suit

J. L. Strasma, 832 South Wildwood avenue, today was the winner in a suit brought by him against Herbert Kline, attorney at law, Fred R. Smith, head of the case yesterday and announced his decision this morning.

The suit was the result of an auto accident which occurred when Kline's car, being pushed by the auto of Merle Christopher, Herchel Strasma's parked car at Merchant street and Harrison avenue.

Strasma was awarded a judgment of $60.

The suit was dismissed as to Christopher, who also had been named as a defendant. Strasma was represented by Attorney Donald Gray and Christopher by Attorney Vernon G. Butz. Kline did not appear nor was he represented by attorney.

Former Kankakeean Invents Turbine

R. E. Lesley of Winthrop Harbor, Ill., former chief engineer of the Paramount Knitting company here, has organized a corporation to start production of a turbine engine he invented and on which he has been working for years, mostly in Waukegan.

A factory building in Winthrop Harbor has been taken over by his company, capitalized for $500,000.

Plan To Abolish Pardons And Paroles Board

Parole Powers Would Be In Hands Of Heads Of
Department Of Safety

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Governor Dwight H. Green approved today a plan to abolish the board and pardons and paroles and set up a new state department of public safety whose director would have final parole authority.

The governor said in a statement that reorganization plan, which would create an eleventh code department consolidating all state crime-fighting agencies, should "bring greatly increased efficiency in the prevention and punishment of crime."

Governor Green accepted in full a drastically revised parole plan recommended to him by a special committee headed by Rodney H. Brandon, state director of welfare. The plan will be submitted to the legislature.

In Hands Of New Board
Parole powers would be taken from the present nine-member parole board and placed in the hands of a board composed of the superintendents of five divisions within the department of safety, Brandon explained.

The new parole authority would consist of the superintendent of prisons, superintendent of parole supervision, the superintendent of crime prevention and the state criminologist.

This group would act on all parole applications but their decisions would be subject to the veto of the director of public safety.

"Instead of having men on the parole board who know nothing about criminals or crime prevention and get their jobs largely because they are influential in getting votes for political parties, we would have men who from day to day are in contact with various aspects of crime prevention," Brandon said.

More "Humanitarian"
The plan, Brandon said, was in his opinion more "humanitarian" than that now in effect.

"Instead of shivering in their cells waiting for the fateful hearing, prisoners will have their records studied and recommendations for parole based upon their regular routine visits every month of the professional criminologists and psychiatrists."

Criminologists on the staffs of the state prison would assist and advise the new parole board, Brandon added.

An outline of the proposed revision already has been submitted to the legislative reference bureau to be drafted into bill form for submission to the legislature.

Jerome R. Finkle, secretary of the bureau and a member of the Brandon committee named by Governor Green 10 days ago to study the parole department setup, said it would be "weeks" however, before the necessary legislation could be drafted.

Werner Schroeder Aids
Besides Brandon and Finkle, members of the committee who submitted the recommendation to the governor are Werner W. Schroeder, Republican national committee man and one of the authors of the present Illinois administrative code, T. P. Sullivan, superintendent of state police and of the bureau of criminal investigation, and J. R. Rascor, field director of public works and

Auto Knocks Last Car Off Train At Momence Thursday

Harry Alexander and Miss Ella Bauer of Momence narrowly escaped serious injury Thursday afternoon when their car collided with a fast train on the Indiana street crossing of the C. & E. I. railroad at Momence.

Alexander failed to see the train, due in Momence at 12:56 p. m., and drove into the side of it. He and Miss Bauer sustained only minor hurts and were treated at a doctor's office. The auto was wrecked.

The last coach became separated from the train and followed it to the depot where the train had stopped.

Military Benefit Ball Will Be Feb. 25

Frank Chinski, chairman in charge of advance ticket sales for the coming "company fund" benefit dance, today reported sales thus far are encouraging.

Under the auspices of various local civic and patriotic organizations, the dance will be held in the armory the night of Feb. 25. Proceeds will be used for the benefit of local young men serving in the army, navy or marine corps.

Water Wouldn't Put Out This Fire

Water usually puts out fire but yesterday it didn't when the 50,000 gallon New York Central railroad water tank (above) caught fire. The wall of fire at the left was started from a salamander (used to keep the pipes from freezing underneath the storage compartment). The fire burned in such a way that only a small part of the water was released. The structure finally collapsed when its supports burned through. City firemen went to the scene but found only two frozen hydrants on railroad property.

Missing Couple Found Dead In An Automobile

Johnston City, Ill., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Williamson county authorities today began an investigation into the deaths of a young Johnston City coal miner and a high school girl whose bodies were found last night in the rear seat of an automobile near here.

Coroner Lon Gasaway said a preliminary investigation revealed the couple, Walter Litton, 20, and Mabel Davis, 17, had died from carbon monoxide gas from the automobile motor. There was no ignition key in the car but the switch had been wired so the motor would start, the coroner said.

The young couple, who had been seen together frequently in recent months, had been missing since Tuesday night. The automobile in which they were found was parked on an old, seldom-used road about two miles southwest of here. Two passersby, Cleve Potts and Garfield Simpson, discovered the bodies, Coroner Gasaway said.

The girl lived at Prosperity near Johnston City but was a senior in Johnston City high school until two weeks ago when she quit school.

An inquest will be held in Johnston City tonight.

Christmas Seal Sale Totals $1,500

Returns from the sale of Christmas seals now total $1,500, with contributions from about a third of the persons who were sent them, it was announced today by Dr. A. L. Nickerson, president of the Kankakee County Tuberculosis association.

Since the books are to be closed and the final report made on Feb. 28, he asked that the others make their contributions before that time.

"It is very encouraging to the association," said Dr. Nickerson, "that a number of persons other than high school students are taking tuberculosis tests."

"From one store having 11 clerks, three had positive reactions. In a group of 20 women, 13 had positive reactions."

File 2 Partition Suits Here Today

Two partition suits were filed for the circuit court today in the office of Albert Tetrault, clerk of the court.

One is by Lela Accurso vs. Gladys Remillard, each of whom owns interests in Kankakee property. The complaint, filed by Attorney H. H. Whittemore, says the plaintiff's interest is one-sixth and the defendant's five-sixths.

The second suit is by Frank Gamble, Momence, vs. Clarence Gamble. Two parcels of property in Summer and Yellowhead townships are involved.

In one, the parties have equal interests, the complaint says, and in the other the plaintiff owns one-sixth and the defendant two-thirds.

Eden And Dill Meet Leaders In Middle East

Columns Of German Motorized
Troops Rolling
Through Rumania

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Columns of Nazi motorized troops many miles long rolled south through Rumania toward the Danube river frontier with Bulgaria, military dispatches reaching here today, reported.

Simultaneously, the general staff of Germany's Balkan army was said to have moved from Bucharest to Cariova, only 40 miles north of the Danube.

The Yugoslav cabinet went into emergency session in the early afternoon as the Belgrade government's attitude toward the fast-moving international events still lacked complete clarity.

Dispatches from the Bulgarian port of Ruse, on the Danube facing Rumania where German troops are massed, said the Bulgarian police fought "Communist demonstrations" against the expected entry of Nazi troops into Bulgaria.

Near Crucial Stage
Cairo, Egypt, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Far-reaching decisions on British war policy were forecast today as Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and General Sir John Dill, chief of the imperial general staff, began a first-hand survey of the situation in the middle east.

Informed sources attached the greatest significance to the arrival of the two British leaders here yesterday when developments in both the Balkans and Africa appear to be nearing a crucial stage.

The presence of the British officials all but overshadowed reports of current activities on the African warfront.

Today's R. A. F. communiqué was confined to the announcement that "continued support" was being given land forces on the various fronts, the report of a raid on Massawa, chief of the loss of one British plane was acknowledged, and an acknowledgment of another axis air attack on British-occupied Bengasi in Libya.

One of the Bengasi raiders was reported shot down in flames by anti-aircraft fire and its entire crew killed. The loss of one British plane was acknowledged. At Massawa a number of grounded Italian planes were said to have been damaged.

British circles were quick to point out that Eden and Sir John already were enroute to Cairo when the Turkish-Bulgarian non-aggression pact was announced and that their trip could not be ascribed to British anxiety on that score.

It was generally agreed, however, that Eden had been sent to gather up the threads of British diplomacy in the Balkans and the middle east and that the pact might have an important bearing on his task.

What Aid May Be Expected
Sir John, neutral sources believed, would tell Greeks and Turks just what help Britain could give them in event Germany attempted to strike at Greece through Bulgaria, and also what aid may be expected

Examine 20 More For Army Service

Twenty selective service registrants with board No. 1 yesterday received their physical examinations in a group of 20 held at the county courthouse, in preparation for the next induction from this county, date of which is not yet definite.

An equal number of registrants of board No. 2 will have the examinations under similar circumstances the afternoon of Feb. 27.

No Kiddin'--Tank With 50,000 Gallons Of Water Is Burned

A 50,000 gallon water tank, caught fire and burned up yesterday on New York Central railroad property near the road's juncture with the I. C. system. The tower was constructed of wood.

All the water in the tank wasn't enough to extinguish the blaze and two trucks of the Kankakee fire department were dispatched to the scene but the railroad company's two fire hydrants nearby were frozen, so the only water immediately available was that in the booster tanks on the fire apparatus.

With this, firemen were able to keep flames from spreading until the wooden tower collapsed and to extinguish the resulting grass fire. A. L. Warner, supervisor of building and bridge construction for the New York Central, said a salamander was used in the enclosed part of the understructure to keep the pipes from freezing. Coal gas formed and caught fire, spreading the flames.

Tow Fire Truck
When a fire alarm was sounded yesterday for the rubbish blaze in rear of the National Tea company store, 416 West Broadway avenue, Bradley, the Bradley volunteers were unable to get their truck started and so appealed to Kankakee for assistance.

The city force sent out a truck while the Bradley apparatus was towed to the scene. Together they put out the blaze which caused only slight damage.

At 1 o'clock this morning, Manager William Langdon of the Paramount theater appealed to firemen to help him get into his apartment upstairs over the theater. It was locked up tight and William didn't have a key. Firemen loaned him a ladder to prop up the side of the building so he could crawl into an upstairs window.

At 8:54 a. m. today firemen were called to the residence of George Brammer, 921 South Washington avenue, where sparks from the chimney caused about $25 damage on a wooden shingled roof.

One Of Italy's Major Problems, Price Control

Costs Of Some Essential Foodstuffs Already Are Fixed

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
Rome—(Correspondence of the Special News Service)—Control of skyrocketing prices is one of Italy's major problems at present.

Prices of some essential foodstuffs already are fixed, with severe penalties imposed on merchants who fail to observe the controls. This change of policy is being meted out to food merchants who hoard rationed goods and sell surreptitiously at fancy prices. But more remains to be done, in the view of some Fascist observers.

A new step has been taken by the ministry of guilds in fixing the retailers' overhead and profits on clothing at a total of 24 to 26 percent of the price, depending on the article. Thus, if the retail price of a cotton dress is 66 lire ($13), the wholesale cost must have been 43.50 lire and the retailer's mark-up only 14.50 lire.

Before the order, fine woollen for men's suits had been marked up, in some cases, from 100 lire ($20) to 250 lire ($50) a meter (39 inches).

A woman who bought a second pair of shoes of the same kind and brand in six months found that the price had risen from 100 lire ($20) to 220 lire ($44).

Drain on Incomes
Food prices are a greater drain on the income of the Italian mainland than white collar workers, which is much smaller than that of the American.

Although Italy is shipping food to Germany, she has enough food to last, with rationing, Italian experts say, until the new crops are in.

Dead, one of main articles of diet, is not rationed at the bakeries. But spaghetti, like flour, is rationed and many in Italian used to eat about 200 grams (seven ounces) of spaghetti a day. Now it is limited to 66 grams (two and one-half ounces) a day.

As substitutes to supply bulk in their diets, Italians are eating more potatoes, the rationed to 66 grams a day, dry beans and peas, but these are difficult to find except in small quantities.

Some food prices are fixed, such as potatoes at two cents a pound (110 lire a kilogram) and milk at 11 cents a quart (220 lire a liter), but eggs cost more than six cents each (125 lire).

Tentative Plans To Redistrict The State

Would Give Illinois 26 Districts Instead Of 25; Census Figures

By DON E. CHAMBERLAIN
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21.—(UPI)—Plans were in the "redistricting" stage today for a congressional reapportionment that would give Illinois 26 districts instead of the present 25, increase Cook county's share of representation and eliminate the state's two congressional-at-large seats.

Illinois House Speaker Elihu J. Schickler, Chicago, disclosed today that the standing house committee on reapportionment had begun sketching tentative plans for redistricting the state on the basis of official 1940 federal census figures for Illinois.

The 20-man house committee, under the chairmanship of Rep. Hugh Luck, R-Pottsville, has made a preliminary division of the state into 26 districts, 13 within the limits of Cook county and 13 in the remainder of the state.

"Federal census figures indicate that Cook county has slightly more than half the representation in congress. But this exact division may not be contained in the house reapportionment plan," Schickler said.
